FUNDING FOR LOCAL MULTICULTURAL FESTIVAL

Member for Albury, Greg Aplin today announced $2,000 for a multicultural event in Albury.

Mr Aplin said the festival was supported by a Multicultural NSW Celebration Grant.

“The funding has been provided to the Women’s Centre for Health and Wellbeing Inc towards the Celebrating Multicultural Women Festival,” Mr Aplin said.

“Locals will enjoy the colourful event which brings our whole community together and is a true celebration of our diverse and harmonious multicultural society”.

Minister for Multiculturalism Ray Williams announced $32,000 funding for 17 community festivals and events across NSW supported by Multicultural NSW Celebration Grants.

“I congratulate all of the community groups which will successfully deliver festivals and events this year supported by Celebration Grants.

“These events showcase our cultural diversity and promote the importance of social cohesion.”
