CONCERTS BRING CHRISTMAS CHEER TO ALBURY SENIORS

Local seniors from across our region will head to Albury Entertainment Centre at 10.30 am and 2.00pm today to join in the festive fun at the 2018 Seniors Christmas Concerts.

Member for Albury Greg Aplin welcomed the concerts which are being held held to say thanks to older people for their valued contributions to the local community.

“I’m thrilled that the popular Seniors Christmas Concerts are in Albury this year,” Mr Aplin said.

“The concerts celebrate and show our appreciation for everything Albury seniors do for their families and our community, and they will be thoroughly enjoyed by all.”

Damien Leith is the headline act for the touring concerts and performs Christmas favourites to the senior concert-goers.

“It is wonderful to be a part of the concerts,” Damien said.

“To be able to see the smiles and enjoyment of seniors in the crowd is very rewarding. I am glad to be part of an initiative that is creating a fun experience for seniors ahead of the festive season.”

NSW Schools Spectacular graduates, Charlotte Rhiane and Nicholas Gentile will join Damien Leith on stage to entertain the crowd with outstanding performances.

Minister for Ageing Tanya Davies said the free concerts aim to bring joy to older Australians through remarkable musical performances.

“The concerts are delightful events which give seniors an opportunity to have fun, sing along to Christmas carols and make new friends,” Mrs Davies said.

“The NSW Government is committed to funding creative initiatives like the Seniors Christmas Concerts that promote inclusive communities for our older people.”
