ONE MONTH TO GO UNTIL THE ALBURY SENIORS CHRISTMAS CONCERTS

Seniors in Albury are being reminded to book tickets for the popular Seniors Christmas Concert extravaganza this November, with places for the highly anticipated events booking up fast.

Member for Albury Greg Aplin urged seniors to get in quick to secure tickets to the highly anticipated concerts, which will feature headline performer, Damien Leith.

“The Seniors Christmas Concerts are a great opportunity for seniors to get in the festive spirit leading up to the Christmas season, and I’m thrilled to be able to bring the concerts to Albury this year,” Mr Aplin said.

“Tickets are selling out fast and I encourage all local residents aged 60 years and over to secure their free tickets now so they don’t miss out.”

The Albury concerts will be held at the Albury Entertainment Centre on Wednesday 28 November, starting at 10.30am and 2pm.

The 2018 Christmas Concerts are an initiative under the NSW Ageing Strategy 2016-2022 and have been held since 2013. To find out more information about the Concerts, and how to book tickets, please visit: <https://seniorsfestival.nsw.gov.au/>.

Tickets are available from the Box Office at the Albury Entertainment Centre.
